A MERRY CHRISTMAS

And A Happy And Prosperous New Year? Is The Best Wishes Of Your Friend

CLAY DONOVAN.

The New Century Club.

Met with Mrs J C Smith Tuesday afternoon Dec 18th. The club was called to order by President Mrs C M Hollingworth. Roll call responded to with quotations from Christmas poems. Minutes were read and approved.

Unfinished and new business taken up and committee heard from.

Mrs M Bernard and Mrs Askew were added to the roll.

The programme for the ensuing year was read by Mrs E Hamilton. A letter from Mrs Selwyn Douglas welcoming the club into the federation and encouraging them in their work, was read by the president. The programme was begun with a paper on "Christ in Art" by Mrs W L Peters which was indeed well gotten up. Mrs E Hamilton's paper on "The Oratorio of the Messiah" was very good indeed. Mrs J C Smith read an interesting paper on "The present day writers. The ten historical questions prepared by the president were answered by members, questions have been prepared and put before the house for several previous meetings, a prize will soon be awarded to the one who has been the most successful in answering the questions.

Mrs E Hamilton delighted the club by singing a selection from "Oratorio Messiah" by Handel. The programme was closed with a Christmas hymn by the club.

The club adjourned to meet January 9th, 1901, the place of meeting to be decided on later.

The Rebekah's and subordinate lodge have a public installation in their hall the first Thursday night in January, which will be January 3rd. All members and their families, and all visiting members are invited to be present. An oyster supper will be served. By order of committee on invitation.

J K Strosnider, chairman.

Dispatcher and Mrs. T. H. Brents entertained at six o'clock dinner yesterday evening. The dinner was superb and the occasion much enjoyed. Later in the evening music and dancing were on the program.

Just arrived car Hunter's cream flour at W. W. Horne's.
